Howard and Jeanne Johnston, after working for the State Department in Europe, retired to Wichita and founded the Global Learning Center in 1988. The Howard & Jeanne Johnston Award for Global Community Citizenship was established in 2000 to honor their lives of international service and global citizenship. The 2019 recipient of this award will be the Peace and Social Justice Center of South Central Kansas and those who have sustained it. Founded in 1992, the Peace & Social Justice Center of South-Central Kansas is a nonpartisan, non-religious not-for-profit organization providing support for those in Kansas seeking peace locally, nationally and internationally.
