What Islam and Sharia have to do with the United States?

Dr. Saqib Ahmed was born and raised in Pakistan. He is a medical doctor by profession and has worked in many countries and cultures across the globe. His interest in comparative religion and world cultures grew during his stay in Ireland where he was involved in many interfaith dialogues. Dr. Ahmed has been living in United States since 2013 and has a lot of interest in the impact of Islam and Muslims on the past and present development of the United States and other western cultures. He is currently working at Wesley Medical Center as a Hospitalist doctor.
