Ukraine

Dr. Nabil Al-Tikriti is Professor of Middle East History at the University of Mary Washington. He has served as consultant, election monitor, and relief worker in Europe, Asia, and Africa and served on the Doctors Without Borders USA Board of Directors.

Dr. John E. Dreifort, Professor of History at Wichita State University, is an expert on 19th and 20th century Europe with focus on Modern European Diplomacy.

They will lead a panel discussion on the Russian invasion of Ukraine.

Could the invasion have been prevented?

What should be done now to end the war with as little further bloodshed as possible?

Are the nuclear plants in Ukraine safe? Will Russian gas and oil and Ukrainian wheat reach the world markets?

This event will be available both in person or on Zoom. We will meet at First UU church of Wichita. The sanctuary is large enough to allow for social distancing. We ask attendees to wear masks and ask that you attend by Zoom if you have any symptoms such as coughing or high temperature. We will not serve food or drinks at this event.

To connect by Zoom enter the Meeting ID and password into your Zoom app or click here.

Lecture free and open to the public
